

Valery Lloyd-Watts In Concert

Special Invitation to all Suzuki Piano Students

Sunday April 10th, 2016
3:30 – 4:30 pm

Steinway Gallery

1481 Innes Rd, Gloucester (at Cyrville Rd. across from Sears Home Store)

Valery Lloyd-Watts has invited all of our students to explore with her how music transforms sound into an emotional reaction. Performing some of the world’s finest classical music, Valery will share her understanding of this process, greatly enhancing how listeners perceive music.

Valery has been hailed as the “world’s most listened-to pianist”, is a music educator, author, performing and recording artist. She has captivated audiences worldwide with her insightful and emotional performances.

Her first recordings were of the entire Suzuki Piano repertoire, followed by 100s of educational recordings for Alfred Publishing Company. Her CanPro Gold Award-winning television series, Music Meant for You, have set the standard for music education worldwide and have had a significant impact on the way piano is taught and on the quality of student performances.

Admission is Free. Sign up deadline by Saturday, March 26th
